

FISCAL NOTE

SB 3823 - HB 3872

March 17, 2006

SUMMARY OF BILL: Current law requires a staff leasing company to give written notice of the general nature of the relationship between the staff leasing company and the client to each leased employee. This bill requires that such notices contain certain, specific language. A violation is punishable through the levying of civil penalties.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Revenues – Not Significant
Increase State Expenditures – Not Significant

Assumptions:

- Any increase in state revenues from the collection of civil penalties will be not significant.
- Any increase in state expenditures to handle complaints generated by the provisions of this bill will be not significant.

CERTIFICATION:

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
